The Hon George Lau Ka-keung, BBS, MH, JP
Honorary Fellow

The Hon George Lau Ka-keung is a Hong Kong Delegate to the 14th National People's Congress (NPC), a Member of the 13th National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC) and a Member of the 8th Legislative Council of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. He holds a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Information Technology, and brings nearly three decades of corporate management experience to his extensive public service roles. He currently serves as an Independent Non-Executive Director of OrbusNeich Medical Group Holdings Limited, Tianjin Development Holdings Limited, and Western China Cement Limited, all listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

A seasoned advocate for youth, Mr Lau served as the 28th Chairman of the Hong Kong United Youth Association, through which he spearheaded the coordination of the HKSAR Government's "We Venture" initiative to advance youth entrepreneurship in the Greater Bay Area. His efforts to connect Hong Kong youth with Mainland exchange, study, and internship opportunities have benefited over 30,000 participants. Notably, during the COVID-19 pandemic, he secured virtual internship placements for university students with premier national institutions, including the Palace Museum and the National Museum of China. He is also the Founding Chairman of Dynamic Youth of Greater Bay Area and Dynamic Youth of Huizhou, and a Board Member of The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups.

Mr Lau is deeply committed to education and national affairs. As a partner of The Education University of Hong Kong, he serves as a guest speaker in the "NPC/CPPCC Speaker Series" and organises immersive cultural exchange visits to Tianjin for EdUHK students, enabling future educators to gain first-hand understanding of national development. He has also facilitated an innovative sister-school network between Tianjin education authorities and the New Territories Principals' Association.

In the area of community safety, Mr Lau serves on the Fight Crime Committee and the Committee on Community Support for Rehabilitated Offenders, and chairs the Tuen Mun District Fight Crime Committee. He champions youth crime prevention programmes including "Project X", a collaboration with Lingnan University, Hong Kong Chu Hai College and Tuen Mun Police District; and "Success Rendezvous", which connects students with workplace experience.

In recognition of his wholehearted dedication to public service and outstanding contributions to youth development, Mr Lau was awarded the Medal of Honour

(2014), appointed a Justice of the Peace (2016), and conferred the Bronze Bauhinia Star (2022) by the Hong Kong SAR Government.

Mrs Mei Ng Fong Siu-mei, BBS
Honorary Fellow

Mrs Mei Ng Fong Siu-mei is an outstanding and renowned leader in environmental protection. She has devoted more than four decades to conservation in Hong Kong and the Chinese Mainland. She previously served as chairperson and executive director of environmental charity organisation Friends of the Earth (HK). In recognition of her commitment to public service, she was appointed by the Hong Kong Government to serve as advisory member of the Country and Marine Parks Board, the Environmental Campaign Committee and the Harbour-Front Enhancement Committee. She currently serves as Honorary Patron of Friends of the Earth (HK).

Mrs Ng led Friends of the Earth (HK) team in advocating and putting environmental protection into practice. She organised tree planting to enhance city greening; promoted energy saving and emission reduction to improve air quality; encouraged public housing recycling and waste reduction; lobbied for enhanced municipal sewage treatment to improve the water quality of Victoria Harbour; and advocated renewable energy and decarbonisation to mitigate climate change. While monitoring corporate social and environmental responsibility as well as government environmental governance, she has also offered visionary and constructive advice on the formulation of environmental policy.

Thinking globally and acting locally, Mrs Ng believes that environmental protection knows no boundaries. Since the 1990s, she has travelled extensively across the Chinese Mainland to promote environmental education and public participation. She has been keen to share environmental concerns and solutions, inspire and empower young people's interest in green careers and entrepreneurship, nurture grassroots environmental groups, and sow the seeds of green awareness and hope. In 2007, she initiated the Dongjiang Upstream Downstream Partnership Project and rallied Sons of Dongjiang eco-volunteers from Hong Kong, Guangdong and Jiangxi to safeguard the headstream habitat, foster public awareness of water conservation and demonstrate the spirit of eco-compensation by giving back to Dongjiang.

Even in retirement, Mrs Ng has devoted herself to the incubation and development of the Earth Academy, an environmental education initiative designed to nurture young people's green innovation mindset and practical capabilities, cultivating environmentally conscious talents with a forward-looking vision, and contributing to progress in society towards sustainable development.

Mrs Ng's passion for environmental protection and public service received local, national and globally recognition. In 2000, she was named in the Global 500

Roll of Honour by United Nations Environment Programme. In the same year, she was appointed China Environment Envoy by the National Environment Bureau of China. The Government of the HKSAR awarded her the Bronze Bauhinia Star in 2003 in recognition of her contributions to environmental protection and community service.

Mr Irons Sze, GBS, BBS, JP
Honorary Fellow

Mr Irons Sze is a leading figure in Hong Kong's industrial and commercial sector, a highly respected community leader, and a staunch supporter of higher education in the city. Throughout a career spanning more than four decades, Mr Sze has remained deeply committed to serving the community. He has actively promoted the steady social and economic development of Hong Kong, advanced the city's integration into the nation's overall development, and made distinguished contributions in these areas.

With family roots in Fujian, Mr Sze is the son of Dr Sze Chi-ching, a renowned calligrapher and entrepreneur. In 1985, he went to the United States to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin–La Crosse. After completing his studies, he returned to Hong Kong and started from an entry-level position in the family business, gaining solid practical experience and gradually building professional expertise in international trade, logistics operations, and human resource management.

With remarkable strategic vision and exceptional leadership, Mr Sze led the family group in expanding its textile raw materials trading business, successfully developing key markets in Japan, South Korea, the Chinese Mainland and Taiwan. During his tenure as President of The Chinese Manufacturers' Association of Hong Kong he promoted Hong Kong brands, as well as the Hong Kong Brands and Products Expo, helping revitalise local industry and commerce and strengthening Hong Kong's economic development. He now serves as Permanent Honorary President of the Association and continues to contribute to the development of Hong Kong's business sector.

Mr Sze served as a member of the 12th and 13th National Committees of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC). During his 13th-term service, he was Vice Chairman of the CPPCC Committee on Population, Resources and Environment. In 2023, he was elected a member of the Standing Committee of the 14th National Committee of the CPPCC. In public service, Mr Sze has been dedicated to deepening economic and trade exchanges between Hong Kong and the Chinese Mainland, promoting youth interaction and exchange, and actively participating in the work of the Hong Kong Coalition, safeguarding the city's prosperity and stability.

Mr Sze is deeply devoted to education and is tireless in his philanthropy. He is currently a member of the Board of Stewards of The Education University of Hong Kong Foundation, and has also served on the governing councils and advisory committees of four local universities. Since 1995, he has continuously sponsored the Vocational Training Council scholarship scheme, supported various campus development and learning initiatives, and helped nurture young talent.

Mr Sze's outstanding contributions and strong sense of social responsibility have been widely recognised. He has been appointed Justice of the Peace, awarded the Bronze Bauhinia Star, and the Gold Bauhinia Star by the Government of the HKSAR.
