Reports and Papers Produced under the prior project:

Eduational Provision for Ethnic Minority Students in Hong Kong: Meeting the Challenges of the Proposed Racial Discrimination Bill (HKIEd8001 PPR-2)

Technical Papers, Reports, Book Chapters and Conference Papers

Technical Papers:

Reports:

Kennedy, K. J. (2006). Educational provision for ethnic minority students in Hong Kong: Meeting the challenges of the proposed Racial Discrimination Bill - First interim report. Hong Kong: Faculty of Education Studies Research Office, The Hong Kong Institute of Education. (Submitted to the Central Policy Unit)

Kennedy, K. J. (2009). Educational provision for ethnic minority students in Hong Kong: Meeting the challenges of the proposed Racial Discrimination Bill - Second interim report. Hong Kong: Faculty of Education Studies Research Office, The Hong Kong Institute of Education. (Submitted to the Central Policy Unit)

Book*

  * Chapters in Minority Students in Asia: Government Policies, School Practices and Teacher Responses:

Journal Articles

- Hue, M.T. & Kennedy, K.J. (Under review). Creating culturally responsive classrooms: The cross-cultural experience of teachers and ethnic minority students in Hong Kong Schools. Race, Ethnicity and Education. (Submitted in October 2009).

- Hue, M.T. (Accepted to be published, 2010). The challenge of making school guidance culturally responsive: Narratives of pastoral needs of ethnic minority students in Hong Kong secondary schools. Educational Studies (Submitted in October 2009).

- Hue, M.T. (Under review). Educational planning for school guidance: Teachers’ narratives of the diverse needs of ethnic minority students in Hong Kong secondary schools. Educational Planning. (Submitted in October 2009).

Conference Papers

Sustainable Development. Khon Kaen, Thailand.

This Research Project is funded as a General Research Fund Grant (HKIEd840809) by the Research Grants Council of Hong Kong.
© Faculty of Education Studies, The Hong Kong Institute of Education 2010. All Rights Reserved.