Mark 11:1- 11 The Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem

- 11:1 And when they came near to Jerusalem, to Beth-phage and Bethany, at the Mountain of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,
- 11:2 And said to them. Go into the little town opposite: and when you come to it, you will see a young donkey tied up that has never been ridden; Untie it and bring it here.
- 11:3 And if anyone says to you Why are you doing this? tell him that the Lord needs it and will send it back at once.
- 11:4 And they went away and saw a young donkey by the door outside in the open street; and they were getting him loose.
- 11:5 And some of those who were there said to them. What are you doing, taking me a donkey?
- 11:6 And they said to them the words which Jesus had said; and they let them go.
- 11:7 And they took the young donkey to Jesus, and put their clothing on him, and he got on his back.
- 11:8 And a great number spread clothing on the road; and others spread branches, which they had cut from the trees.
- 11:9 And those who went in front, and those behind began to shout, ' Glory: A blessing on him who comes in the name of the Lord
- 11:10 A blessing on the coming kingdom of our father David: Glory in the highest.'
- 11:11 And he went into Jerusalem into the Temple; and after looking round about on all things, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
