Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course explores with participants how students can be helped to develop literacy skills to support their English language development in the 21st century classrooms. The course takes a process-genre approach and will explore with participants key genres in the primary and secondary curricula and the planning, implementation and evaluation of English language lessons as well as learning materials to support students' development of multiliteracies in English.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ Demonstrate understanding of the purpose, text structure, language use of genres explored in the course and the meaning-making potential of multimodal elements [PILO₁];
- CILO₂ Plan, implement and evaluate English language lessons (with ready-to-use learning materials) using a process-genre approach to develop students' abilities to comprehend and create multimodal texts [PILO₂, PILO₃, PILO₄]; and
- CILO₃ Plan, implement and evaluate the integration of multimodal resources in English language lessons using the process-genre approach [PILO₂, PILO₃, PILO₄].

3. Course Intended Language Learning Outcomes (CILLOs)
