Why FEHD?

Any aspect of the course and course offerings (including, without limitation, the content of the course and the manner in which the course is taught) may be subject to change at any time at the sole discretion of the University. Without limiting the right of the University to amend the course and its course offerings, it is envisaged that changes may be required due to factors such as staffing, enrolment levels, logistical arrangements and curriculum changes.

We offer a wide range of academic disciplines in relation to education and psychology.

We provide sound preparation for multiple careers, such as teaching, counselling, community relations, educational publishing and early childhood education.

We provide flexibility for non-BEd students to pursue a teaching career or career in schools and community settings.

We double count your credit points in some courses.

We provide further study opportunities in areas such as early childhood education, psychology, educational counselling and special education.

Second Majors

To attain a Second Major, you are required to complete 10 courses (3 credit points / course). Only Year 1 students can apply for a Second Major during the normal application period (i.e. 1–31 March).

Child Studies

Career / Study Progression

- Offers opportunities for students who pursue a career in early childhood settings such as playgroups, publication companies, after-school activities centres etc.
- Equips students with the necessary research skills to conduct systematic research in child development and opens up a research pathway for students into child development in their postgraduate degrees.
