-----------	----

A Second Major or a Minor in the humanities helps broaden and enrich your study in various aspects of human culture, including languages, literatures, cultures, religions and language education. The courses and programmes in the humanities provide you with the knowledge, intellectual skills and habits of thought indispensable to a modern education.

- There may be some restrictions on the choices of Second Majors/Minors for some programmes. Please read carefully the requirements of the Second Majors/Minors and consult the offering departments/programmes before you make the choices.
- Second Major/Minors will not lead to a Qualified Teacher Status. Teaching practice or immersion/internship will not be arranged for students of Second Majors/Minors.
- The information contained herein may be changed for unforeseeable reasons. Please refer to Registry's website at www.eduhk.hk/re for requirements, application procedures and other details.
- For course information, please refer to FHM's programme website at www.eduhk.hk/fhm_programmes.
- All courses carry 3 credit points (CPs) each.

SECOND MAJORS

New students in programmes under the 4- or 5-year curriculum (i.e. 4-year Education-plus programmes and 5-year BEd programmes) are permitted to enroll in a Second Major, subject to

■ Programme specific requirements; and

English Language Teaching (Primary/Secondary) 英語教育(小學/中學)

These Minors focus on the teaching of the English language in primary schools (Primary Strand)/secondary schools (Secondary Strand) and the practical issues and strategies involved. They enable students to have an understanding of how English is taught and help learners develop meta-knowledge and meta-cognition of the second language learning processes and strategies, which can be useful to their own English language learning.

These Minors are offered only to undergraduate students in their 3rd year of study or beyond. The exit requirement of these Minors is IELTS 6.5 (with no sub-score lower than 6.0) or equivalent.

Language Teaching (Secondary)

Chinese Religions and Culture 中國宗教與文化

This Minor aims to deepen students' understanding of popular religious beliefs and customs in Chinese culture. By studying the major religions in China, their impact on ancient and modern Chinese cultural history, and the cultural collision and religious transformation after the spread of Western religions in China, students will grasp the way religions and culture influence the life of Chinese, and gain a more comprehensive understanding of Chinese traditional culture.

Language and Society 語言與社會

The Minor programme aims to develop students' knowledge in subject areas that examine the use of language in a variety of social contexts. It aims to enhance students' awareness and sensitivity to the social meanings of context-specific language use in Chinese, English, and bilingual interaction. All courses selected for the 'Language and Society' Minor programme are taught in English. The target students of this Minor programme are non-English majors students. The knowledge and skills gained from the 'Language and Society' Minor will equip them with a critical and analytical mind to understand the dynamics of social interaction in monolingual mode and in bilingual setting, from everyday conversation to field-specific discourse between teachers and educators, as well as between professionals in the workplace.
