SENIOR YEAR Admissions

We offer a number of Senior Year (SY) places for graduates of sub-degree programmes. Quality students holding recognised post-secondary qualifications or attending the final year of a recognised sub-degree programme (such as AD/HD or equivalent) will be considered for Senior Year admissions.

They will be admitted based on the credit transfer system and can complete their programme in two years. The SY student population is growing and our Faculty has provided various kinds of support to cater to their unique learning needs.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in English Studies and Digital Communication

英語研究及數碼傳訊榮譽文學士

Be More Than Good at English

The BA(ESDC) programme aims to cultivate a new generation of English studies students with strong digital literacy skills through a digitally enriched curriculum. It provides a wide range of courses to build a solid foundation in English language, linguistics and digital literacy, consolidated by hands-on experience in using digital tools for language applications.

Students will be empowered to develop digital contents for the learning and teaching of languages, to publish in digital media and to support and critically evaluate digital communication solutions. A combination of English studies and digital communication technology will allow students to further contribute to the transformation of education, media, and publishing in the digital age.

PROGRAMME Features

- To cultivate a new generation of English Studies students with strong digital literacy skills through a digitally enriched curriculum;
- All-round training in digital communication; and
- Solid foundation in English language, linguistics and digital literacy, consolidated by hands-on experience in using digital tools for language applications.

INTERNSHIP

Students are required to participate in a compulsory internship (3 cps) in the summer after Year 3. The Internship aims to enable students to integrate and apply in real-life settings the knowledge and skills gained in their studies.

The Internship also prepares students to handle challenges they may encounter in real work situations and provides opportunities for them to consider their future career directions.

STUDENT Sharing

“The programme that I am studying in includes both the use of technology and the exploration of English studies. The combination of both fields sounded exciting to me”.

FAIZA
Year 4 student

CAREER Prospects

The programme provides an excellent background for job opportunities in education, media, journalism, publishing and communication. Graduates will be able to transfer their multidisciplinary knowledge and their digital and intercultural awareness to participate in the future development of digital learning. They will also be well-prepared to work for international technological enterprises or any other business with technology-driven innovation in which good English communication skills, a high level of digital flexibility and English proficiency are required.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Language Studies (Chinese Major/English Major)

語文研究榮譽文學士（中文主修/英文主修）

Rooted in Hong Kong, Engaging the World

The BA(Lang Studies) programme aims to provide diversified learning experiences for students to develop their career pathways by deepening and broadening their studies in language contexts.

Through carefully organised courses, students can pursue their own academic interests at their own pace and acquire a solid foundation in their major so as to embrace future challenges in the digital world.

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

PROGRAMME Features

- Flexible credit-unit system that permits students to explore their academic interests;
- Standing Committee on Language Education and Research (SCOLAR) recognition; and
- Abundant opportunities to conduct academic research in areas of language, literature, media and literary translation.

INTERNSHIP

The Internship prepares students to integrate and apply in real-life settings the knowledge and skills gained in their studies. Students may select a 3 cps Internship as one of their elective courses.

After completion, students are well-positioned to use the acquired skills to handle challenges in real work situations. They will also gain insight into their future career paths.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Teaching Chinese as a Second Language

漢語作為第二語言教學榮譽文學士

Journey to Become a Chinese Teacher to Non-Chinese Speakers

The BA(TCSL) programme aims to nurture professionals in teaching Chinese as a Second Language. Students enrolled in this programme will be equipped with:

- Interdisciplinary knowledge including Chinese language and pedagogy, as well as educational psychology; and
- The ability to analyse issues related to Chinese teaching in the context of multilingualism and globalisation.

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

PROGRAMME Features

- The first and only undergraduate programme in Hong Kong specialising in Teaching Chinese as a Second Language;
- A "Chinese Language Strand" is offered to Senior Year entrants. Upon completion of this strand, students will be recognised by the Standing Committee on Language Education and Research (SCOLAR) as graduates of a Chinese major degree; and
- Graduates can further apply for local Postgraduate Diploma in Education (PGDE) programmes.

FIELD Experience

Students are required to participate in the Field Experience in Semester 2 of Year 3. The Field Experience consists of (1) local school visit and (2) a 4-week Field Experience (tentatively during May - June) in the international college of a non-local university.

STUDENT Sharing

"I am a full-time primary school Chinese teacher. I teach Chinese to both local students and non-Chinese speaking students. I have successfully achieved my dream and I am very grateful for the opportunities that BA(TCSL) gave me".

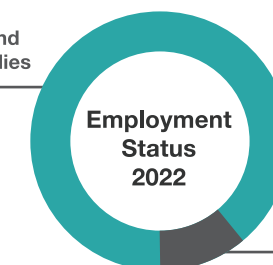

LAW Wing Yan
2022 graduate

CAREER Prospects

The programme aims to produce graduates with high Chinese and English proficiency, who possess solid subject knowledge for their career in teaching Chinese to non-Chinese students in public schools, local/overseas international schools, kindergartens, or other education agencies. Graduates of BA(TCSL) have the option to apply for local PGDE programmes or overseas-qualified teacher training programmes, based on their personal choice, to enhance their teaching career development.
