Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

The twentieth century has been marked by dramatic historical events, such as the two world wars, the Great Depression, and the cold war, as well as the liberating but often violent processes of decolonization and the civil rights movement. Later in the century, the emergence of the internet and new digital technologies transformed cultural production in multiple ways. This course will focus on the impact of such developments on literary traditions in Great Britain and the United States, placing representative texts in their contexts of origin, in terms of politics, economics, and cultural history. It will provide an overview of particular literary movements that responded to these developments, from modernism to postmodernism. Students will also continue to develop their understanding of literary form, as the forms in question changed considerably in the course of the century.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ Develop an ability to relate the representation of human experience to its culture and circumstances of origin;
- CILO₂ Demonstrate an understanding of the range of variables in the culture and circumstances of writing; and
- CILO₃ Cultivate an ability to discuss literary technique in the context of historical and geographical origins.

3. Course Intended Language Learning Outcomes (CILLOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILLO₁ Write thoughtful literary analyses using appropriate terminology and conventions.
