Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

In this course students will develop a spectrum of conducting skills for directing ensemble music performance and practices. Participants will also develop a whole range of knowledge, skills and techniques relevant to ensemble conducting and directing experience, including aspects of leadership, rehearsal procedures, music selection, programming and administration issues. There will be opportunities for participants to conduct and direct a music ensemble.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

- CILO₁ demonstrate expressive gestures and effective podium communication skills to interpret different styles and genres of ensemble music literatures with stylistic interpretation and artistic performance;
- CILO₂ demonstrate musical ensemble performances by effective conducting, directing and collaborating;
- CILO₃ develop effective, flexible, and collaborative practice and logistic plans to meet the unique demands of effective rehearsal and ensemble practices; and demonstrate effective leadership in the realization of effective ensemble
- CILO₄ programming, planning and performance.
