Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

- 1. Problem Solving Skills
- 2. Critical Thinking Skills
- 3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
- 5. Social Interaction Skills
- 6. Ethical Decision Making

7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

The two courses, Traditions and Practices of Music I and II, aim to enrich students' awareness, knowledge and understanding of the key aspects of music as a performing art. Part I focuses on the Western musical arts in general and explores the sounds, structures, practices and conventions from different historical, social, cultural and philosophical traditions, with particular emphasis on how they are being practiced in the modern world. Students will gain an insight into the workings and social norms of the Western musical arts, and become better able to empathize with practitioners and audiences of these practices.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILO_s)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ demonstrate an understand the historical and stylistic development of the Western musical arts in its social-political and cultural contexts;
- CILO₂ identify and be familiar with major trends, representative personnel and institutions of Western musical practices, both historically and contemporaneously in its diverse representations in the modern world; and
- CILO₃ articulate the roles and significances of existing performing arts programmes in society through studying some of the representative performing arts events in Hong Kong and the nearby regions.
