Part II

The University’s Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short “PEER & I”):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility;
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:
1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
4a. Oral Communication Skills
4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives
1. Course Synopsis

This course provides students with opportunities to articulate knowledge of theories and develop competencies in critical thinking about current issues in the field of language and gender studies. The focus is on how gender is represented and constructed in both spoken and written discourse. It aims to develop students’ awareness of gender issues in Hong Kong and beyond, and sensitivity to gender implications of English language use in social, academic and/or workplace contexts so as to make them become socially responsible citizens.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ Demonstrate a sound and critical understanding of key concepts and current issues in the study of language and gender;
- CILO₂ Analyse issues of gender and power relations as they are represented in language; and
- CILO₃ Demonstrate an understanding of the theoretical applications of language and gender studies in various Hong Kong settings.

3. Course Intended Language Learning Outcomes (CILLOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILLO₁ Develop awareness of and sensitivity to gender implications of English language use in diverse contexts; and
- CILLO₂ Use appropriate spoken and written English to communicate in academic and professional contexts.

4. Content, CILOs, CILLOs and Teaching & Learning Activities
