Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):
- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; **&
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:
1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
4a. Oral Communication Skills
4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making

7.   Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course provides an introduction to literary criticism. It offers students the critical tools they need to read poetry, drama and fiction effectively. They will move far beyond the sentence level to analyze and interpret larger chunks of text. Works will be chosen for their suitability in teaching the reading skills that constitute the target of the course, as well as for their literary quality.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

$CILO_1$ Recognize, define, and use in reading basic concepts associated with poetry, drama and fiction;

$CILO_2$ Read, and offer an original interpretation of, works presented in the course; and

$CILO_3$ Develop critical thinking skills through the analysis of complex literary texts.

3. Course Intended Language Learning Outcomes (CILLOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

$CILLO_1$ Demonstrate competence in reading different genres of literary works; and $CILLO_2$ Demonstrate sensitivity to text features in writing.

4. Content, CILOs, CILLOs and Teaching & Learning Activities

Course Content	CILOs/ CILLOs	Suggested Teaching & Learning Activities
• Core concepts as starting points for the reading of poetry: Metre, metaphor, simile, irony, poetic form, thematic analysis following the usage of individual words and groups of words.	$CILO_{1,2,3}$ $CILLO_{1,2}$	Lecture, tutorial – Literature Circles.
• Core concepts as starting points for the reading of fiction: Narrative structure, setting, character, organisation of time, organisation of space, narrative point of view.	$CILO_{1,2,3}$ $CILLO_{1,2}$	Lecture, tutorial – Literature Circles, Group PowerPoint Oral Presentation.
• Core concepts as starting points for the reading of drama: Conventions of dramatic writing, stage terminology, visualising a play based on a written text, tableau, interaction of character, the nature of the dramatic moment.	$CILO_{1,2,3}$ $CILLO_{1,2}$	Lecture, tutorial – Literature Circles.

● Philosophical considerations: how the marks on the page produce meaning, and how personal interpretation is and is not limited by the text.	$CILO_3$ $CILLO_{1,2}$ (etc.)	Lecture, tutorial – Literature Circles.

Organisation

This course offers a mix of lectures, tutorials and consultation sessions. The one-hour lectures will introduce you to broad frameworks and/or key concepts for conducting textual analysis. You are encouraged to raise questions or share ideas during the lecture in a collegial manner. Unlike the traditional mode of "teacher talk," this more interactive mode of learning seeks to foster critical engagement with the syllabus texts. Lectures will be followed by two-hour tutorials where you will work in small groups called "Literature Circles". "Literature Circles" allow you to engage in exploratory talk around texts with your peers. In other words, this is a 'space' for you to try out the analytical vocabulary and models of critical reading introduced each week, question your peers' textual interpretations, and unpack texts together. There will also be opportunities to present your critical readings to the class individually or as a group. Finally, you will be able to speak to your tutor about the final exam or aspects of the course in consultation sessions.

5. Assessment

Assessment Tasks	Weighting	CILOs/ CILLOs
(a) Poetry Analysis (1,200 words). Discuss the poetic techniques used in the poem and the effects they generate.	40%	$CILO_2$ $CILLO_1$ $CILLO_2$
(b) Two individual blog posts (one on drama and one on the novel) and two respective peer responses to other students' posts.	10%	$CILO_2$
(c) Examination. Write two essays on topics relating to drama and fiction.	50%	$CILO_{1,2}$ $CILLO_1$

6. Use of Generative AI in Course Assessments
   Please select one option only that applies to this course:

   ☐ Not Permitted: In this course, the use of generative AI tools is not allowed for any assessment tasks.

   ☑ Permitted: In this course, generative AI tools may be used in some or all assessment tasks. Instructors will provide specific instructions, including any restrictions or additional requirements (e.g., proper acknowledgment, reflective reports), during the first lesson and in relevant assessment briefs.
