1. Course Synopsis

This course forms part of a two-part structure to engage students actively in musical performance. Performance Matters I focuses on the conceptual, physical, aural and various aspects related to musical performance. It enables students to address the theoretical and practical aspects of the musician's body, mind and emotions in relation to music rehearsal and performance practices in different settings. Students will develop skills and techniques to reflect on music performance. Music-making sessions, lectures, masterclasses and demonstration workshops will complement the input from tutors and guest lecturers to enhance students' awareness of creativity, aesthetics and communication in musical performance.
