

TARGET STUDENTS

- Local (HKDSE and non-HKDSE) and
- Non-local

PROGRAMME AIMS

The programme aims at training dedicated young people to become key players in today's rapidly changing environment. Graduates will be able to:

- master the knowledge and skills necessary to help people work more effectively in organizations; contribute to an organization's quest to reach higher levels of effectiveness; and work within a range of organizations and groups
- to effect positive change in communities.

SPECIAL FEATURES

- An exciting programme that opens up a world of new opportunities for young people wanting to contribute to their communities.
- A cutting-edge degree that meets growing demands from industry and community for specialists who have the skills to manage and effect change.
- A unique and innovative programme that provides new ways of thinking about people and how organizations work.
- An interdisciplinary and integrative approach that connects theory and practice.
- A 200-hour Internship in NGOs and business that gives students an authentic professional workplace experience before graduation.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

Domain	Credit Points
Major Study
- Core courses	33
- Specialization courses	12
- Research Methods	3
- Honours Project	6
- Internship	6
General Education	18
Co-curricular and Service Learning	3
Language Enhancement	9
Elective and/or Minors	30

Total: 120

SPECIALIZATIONS OFFERED

- Organization Leadership and International Development
- Human Service and Community Development

CORE COURSES

- Developmental Psychology in Everyday Life
- Human as Social Beings: Exploring Social Psychology
- Theories and Approaches in Counselling
- Essential Counselling Skills
- Families in Chinese Contexts
- Understanding Organizations
- Organizational Behaviour
- Organizational Learning
- Group Dynamics and Team Building
- Communities as a Resource for Development
- Ethical Issues in Human and Organizational Development: Global and Local Perspectives

MODE OF STUDY

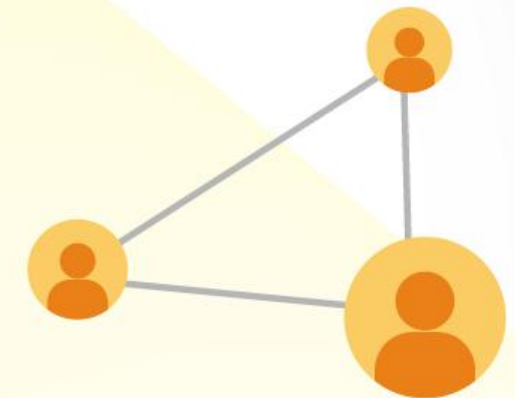

Four-year full-time

MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION

All Major study courses will be delivered in English

TUITION FEE

$354,000 for the whole programme
(provisional and subject to adjustment)
Scholarships and financial aids available for eligible students

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates may work in government, social and private organizations. Possible careers may include:

- Organizational Development Officer
- Corporate Social Responsibility Officer
- Project Executive/Coordinator
- Community Services Officer
- Public Affairs Officer
- Talent Management Officer
- Councilor Assistant

