Assistant Professor (Ref: AsstProf/HPE/0820)
Department of Health and Physical Education

The Department aspires to be a leader in health education and promotion locally, regionally, and ultimately internationally with a focus on educational research, development, and innovation. The Department contributes to nurture outstanding and caring Health educators and professionals to have a sustained impact on social progress and human betterment in Hong Kong and beyond. The Department is looking for academic staff who wish to join a group of committed colleagues whose focus is on the academic study of health education and promotion or related disciplines.

The appointee will participate in activities related to teaching, research, knowledge transfer, administrative work and community service. He/she is able to teach in the following areas: primary health, health counseling, health culture, health statistics and or other health-related courses at the undergraduate level. He/she required to have at least 3 years of higher education teaching experience and to be actively involved in research that leads to successful grant proposals and publications in recognized refereed journals. He/she will also develop, evaluate and teach in programmes at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels; provide guidance to students in the capacity of academic adviser; supervise students on education practice and contribute to departmental and faculty activities and management.

Applicants should have a Doctoral Degree in health related discipline with a track record of research, preferably with several years of working experiences in teaching and working experience with health related areas. They should have evidence of plans for future development and the capacity to build up good working relationship with local schools, community settings and strengthening the professionals in Hong Kong as global leader in teaching, research and innovation. Bilingual competency in English and Chinese and an appreciation of the challenges of working in a multicultural context will be advantageous. Preference will be given to candidates who possess a relevant professional teaching certificate, e.g. PGDE or qualification of Qualified Teacher Status recognized by the Education Bureau of Hong Kong or other qualification of equivalence.
