

香港教育大學

The Education University of Hong Kong

Founded in 1994 and attained its University title in 2016, the Education University of Hong Kong is a publicly funded tertiary institution dedicated to the advancement of teaching and learning, through a diverse offering of academic and research programmes up to doctoral level on teacher education and complementary social sciences and humanities disciplines. The University aspires to further enhance its role as a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational research, development and innovation and recognized for its excellence in nurturing outstanding and caring professionals as well as the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 450 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 16 academic departments, as well as 18 University-level and Faculty-level research and professional development centres. For more information about the University, please visit <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

We are looking for suitable candidates to fill the following positions. If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Chair Professors / Professors

The University is now seeking to appoint senior academics who are creative, future-oriented with a passion for what they do and a willingness to lead teams of bright, young academics toward successful careers and making a positive impact in their communities.

The appointees are expected to have a strong publication record and international reputation. They should also have some leadership experience, be good teachers, and be able to contribute to collaborative research and academic program development, to secure external funds, and to serve the community in line with their expertise. Applicants should also have an appreciation of the rewards and challenges of working in a multicultural context.

Faculty of Education and Human Development

The Faculty of Education and Human Development comprises six cognate Departments, namely: Curriculum and Instruction, Early Childhood Education, Education Policy and Leadership, International Education, Psychology, and Special Education and Counselling.

Applications / Nominations are invited from the following departments:

Department of Education Policy and Leadership

Educational Leadership (Ref: CPP/EPL/0315)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in educational leadership or a related field, such as organizational behaviour or organizational change. We are interested in motivated, experienced professionals with a record of successful leadership, innovation and curriculum development across the key areas of the department (leadership, policy and teacher development). The appointee may be concurrently appointed as Head of the Department subject to the Headship selection process of the University.

Department of Early Childhood Education

Post (A) – Early Childhood (Ref: CPP/ECE/0315/A)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in early childhood, birth through kindergarten, child development or related field. We are interested in motivated, experienced professionals with experience in Birth to Kindergarten programmes that prepare pre-and in-service educators to work with infants, toddlers, and kindergarteners with and without disabilities.

Post (B) – Human Development and Family Studies (Ref: CPP/ECE/0315/B)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in human development and family studies, or a related social science field. We are interested in motivated academics with experience and a passion in the following areas: parenting and parenthood, family transitions, work-family dynamics, intergenerational relations, and family policy.

Department of International Education

International Perspectives in Education (Ref: CPP/IE/0315)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in International Education, Comparative Education, Education for Development, Global Citizenship or related area. We are interested in motivated, experienced professionals with a record of successful leadership, innovation and curriculum development across the key areas of the department. The appointee may be concurrently appointed as Head of the Department subject to the Headship selection process of the University.

Department of Special Education and Counselling

Post (A) - Emotional and Behavioural Disorders (Ref: CPP/SEC/0315/A)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in Special Education and/or a related field. We are interested in motivated and experienced professionals in the area of emotional and behavioural disorders.

Post (B) – Educational Neuroscience (Ref: CPP/SEC/0315/B)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in Special Education and/or a related field. We are interested in motivated and experienced professionals in cognitive and/or educational neuroscience, particularly in the area of neurodevelopmental disorders and special educational needs.

Department of Psychology

Cognitive Psychology (Ref: CPP/PS/0315)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in psychology or cognitive science. We are interested in motivated academics with a passion for psychology of language. The ideal candidates should have a strong publication record and good international networks, and be skilled in developing and carrying out interdisciplinary, programmatic research in the area of language and literacy development and disabilities, psycholinguistics, language cognition, and/or bilingualism.

Please visit the website at <http://www.eduhk.hk/fehd/en/> for more information about the Faculty of Education and Human Development and its departments. For enquiries about the posts, please contact Professor Allan Walker, Dean of the Faculty of Education and Human Development at adwalker@eduhk.hk.

Remuneration package will be highly competitive and attractive fringe benefits will be offered.

Applications / nominations with full curriculum vitae and completed application form should be sent to the “Secretary of Strategic Recruitment Search Committee” by email to search@eduhk.hk. Please quote the reference number and post of the relevant Department with indication of the area(s) of interest.

Application Form is obtainable from (a) <http://www.eduhk.hk/hro/applyfor.htm>; or (b) the Human Resources Office, 3/F, Cho Kwai Chee Foundation Building, The Education University of Hong Kong, 10 Lo Ping Road, Tai Po, New Territories, Hong Kong. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsoff/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the positions advertised. Since the incumbent may engage in work relating to students in schools, prospective employee(s) may be requested to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

