

Founded in 1994 and awarded the University title in 2016, The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) is a publicly funded university dedicated to the advancement of learning and teaching, through a diverse offering of academic and research programmes up to doctoral level in teacher education and complementary disciplines, such as the social sciences and humanities. The University aspires to further enhance its role as a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational research, development and innovation and recognized for its excellence in nurturing outstanding and caring professionals as well as the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 450 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 16 academic departments, as well as various University-level and Faculty-level research and professional development centres. For more information about the University, please visit <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

We are looking for suitable candidates to fill the following positions. If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Chair Professors / Professors

Faculty of Education and Human Development

The Faculty of Education and Human Development is a young Faculty made up of six Departments, namely: Curriculum and Instruction, Early Childhood Education, Education Policy and Leadership, International Education, Psychology, and Special Education and Counselling. In addition, there are a number of Research Centres and Areas of Research Strength. For details, please visit our Faculty website at <http://www.eduhk.hk/fehd>.

The Faculty is seeking outstanding applicants for appointment as Chair Professor or Professor. While each department seeks specific positions, the Faculty invites applications from scholars engaged in interdisciplinary research that brings together two or more of our key areas in exciting ways which hold the potential to impact positively on our schools and broader communities. We are especially open to innovative possibilities which tread new ground conceptually and/or methodologically and focus on linking education in East Asia to the broader global context. We seek scholars working in the following areas and invite them to outline the nature of their work and its unique contribution:

- Educational Leadership and Change
- Family Studies in Cultural Contexts
- International and Globalized Education
- Inclusion and Diversity in Education

In addition to these Faculty positions, Departments invite applications for the specific positions listed below:

Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Post (A): Curriculum Policy, Curriculum Evaluation, Curriculum Design and Implementation
(Ref: CPP/P/C&I/Post A/1119)

We are looking to re-position ourselves in certain key areas of curriculum. We are interested in scholars with an international reputation in key curriculum areas such as curriculum policy, curriculum evaluation, curriculum design and implementation. A successful appointee would have a strong track record of publications and of winning competitive research grants, as well as having a strong capacity for and interest in professional engagement. Experience with the Asia and the Greater China regions would be an advantage.

For information on the Department of Curriculum and Instruction, please visit this website:
<https://www.eduhk.hk/ci/en/>.

Department of Early Childhood Education

Post (B): Human Development and Family Studies (Ref: CPP/P/ECE/Post B/1119)

We are interested in motivated academics with experience and passion in the following areas: Parenting and Parenthood, Family Transitions, Work-family Dynamics, Intergenerational Relations, and Family Policy.

Post (C): Educational Measurement, Assessment and Testing (Ref: CPP/P/ECE/Post C/1119)

The Faculty of Education and Human Development wishes to appoint an internationally-recognized scholar in the area of educational measurement, assessment and testing. The successful appointee will have an interest in both theoretical and applied issues relating to educational and psychological measurement and an ability to engage in high level work both internationally and locally. The appointee will have a strong track record of publications, a record of successful experience with postgraduate supervision, a record of winning competitive research grants and a capacity for professional engagement. In particular, the appointee should be willing to take part in the active mentoring of early career staff. An interest in Asian contexts and their influence on testing, examinations and assessment would be a distinct advantage.

For information on the Department of Early Childhood Education, please visit this website:
<https://www.eduhk.hk/ece/en/>.

Department of Education Policy and Leadership

Post (D): Educational Leadership (Ref: CPP/P/EPL/Post D/1119)

The Department aims to build on its legacy of research, teaching, and professional learning in areas related to school leadership and management, policy development and criticism, and teacher, leader and school development. To enhance its capacity, the Department seeks an internationally recognised scholar in the field of educational leadership or an associated area who can draw on a successful track record to mentor researchers and lead teams in winning and enacting projects of international reach with outcomes for policy and practice or other social impact. Expertise in running successful leader development programmes is desirable.

For information on the Department of Education Policy and Leadership, please visit this website: <https://www.eduhk.hk/epl/en/>.

Department of International Education

Post (E): International Education (Ref: CPP/P/IE/Post E/1119)

The Department is actively pursuing an agenda in international education. We are interested in scholars with an international reputation in key areas such as, but not restricted to, teaching and learning in international schools, international education, and international curricula such as the International Baccalaureate, Cambridge Assessment and the Advanced Placement program. We are also open to someone who takes a cross-disciplinary perspective on international education. A successful appointee would have an outstanding track record of publications and of winning competitive research grants, as well as having a strong capacity for and interest in professional engagement.

For information on the Department of International Education, please visit this website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/ie/en/>.

Department of Psychology

Post (F): Experimental/Cognitive Psychology (Ref: CPP/P/PS/Post F/1119)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in experimental psychology or cognitive science. We are interested in motivated academics strong in methodology and experimental design with a passion for studying basic cognitive processes. The ideal candidates should have a strong publication record and good international networks, and be skilled in developing and carrying out interdisciplinary, programmatic research in the said areas.

Post (G): Health and Community Psychology (Ref: CPP/P/PS/Post G/1119)

Applicants should have an earned Doctoral Degree in psychology and/or a related field. We are looking for an established scholar of international repute in preferably one or more of the following research areas: community mental health, social ecological perspective on health, community health promotion, biobehavioral factors in health, health services' planning and programme evaluation, etc. The applicant will take a leading role in further developing health and community psychology as a recognised area of strength in the University. He/she will also oversee and promote the development of professional linkages between the department and the community in various areas in public health.

For information on the Department of Psychology, please visit this website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/ps/en/>.

Department of Special Education and Counselling

Post (H): School Guidance and Counselling and SEN Support (Ref: CPP/P/SEC/Post H/1119)

We are looking for an internationally-recognized scholar in the area of school guidance and counselling and support to SEN students. The successful appointee should have a strong track record of publications, a record of successful experience in postgraduate supervision and winning competitive research grants, and a capacity for professional engagement. The appointee should be willing to take part in the active mentoring of early career staff, and take the lead in developing the research capacity of the Department. An interest and capacity to build up relationships with schools, NGOs and helping professionals in the Greater China area and Asia, and a willingness to inform and contribute to the community with research and knowledge would be a distinct advantage.

Post (I): SEN Study with Psychological Approaches (Ref: CPP/P/SEC/Post I/1119)

We are looking for an internationally-recognized scholar in the area of studying SEN with psychological approaches. The type of SEN can be, but not limited to, Emotional and Behavioral Difficulties, AD/HD, Autism Spectrum Disorder, Gifted Education, and Learning Disorders. Neuroscience in Special Education is also a targeted area. The successful appointee should have a strong track record of publications, a record of successful experience in postgraduate supervision and winning competitive research grants, and a capacity for professional engagement. The appointee should be willing to take part in the active mentoring of early career staff, and take the lead in developing the research capacity of the Department. An interest and capacity to build up relationship with schools, NGOs and helping professionals in the Greater China area and Asia, and a willingness to inform and contribute to the community with research and knowledge would be a distinct advantage.

For information on the Department of Special Education and Counselling, please visit this website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/sec/en/>.

Main Duties may include:

1. Developing and leading a university-wide research programme in the applicant's research area(s)
2. Assuming major academic and administrative leadership roles in the Department, Faculty, University, and/or the scientific discipline

Qualifications:

1. PhD or equivalent in a relevant scientific discipline
2. Record of research funding and productivity as evidenced by high impact peer reviewed publications
3. Leadership in developing and sustaining new research areas
4. Experience in team building and mentoring
5. Evidence of collaborative interactions
6. Demonstrated track record in academic and administrative leadership positions
7. Excellent oral and written communication skills

Screening will continue until positions are filled.

Please visit the website at <http://www.eduhk.hk/fehd/en/> for more information about the Faculty of Education and Human Development and its departments. For enquiries about the posts, please contact Professor Allan Walker, Dean of the Faculty of Education and Human Development at adwalker@eduhk.hk.

Remuneration package will be highly competitive and attractive fringe benefits will be offered.

Applications / nominations with full curriculum vitae and completed application form should be sent to the "Secretary of Strategic Recruitment Search Committee" by email to search@eduhk.hk. Please quote the reference number and post of the relevant Department with indication of the area(s) of interest.

Application Form is obtainable from (a) <http://www.eduhk.hk/hro/applyfor.htm>; or (b) the Human Resources Office, 3/F, Cho Kwai Chee Foundation Building, The Education University of Hong Kong, 10 Lo Ping Road, Tai Po, New Territories, Hong Kong. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection

Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications/nominations will be treated in strict confidence. The University reserves the right not to fill the position or to fill the position by invitation. Those who are shortlisted will be contacted. Since the incumbent may engage in work relating to students in schools, prospective employee(s) may be requested to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

