Lecturer I/II (Ref: LI/II/LCS/0819)

Department of Literature and Cultural Studies

The appointee will be responsible for teaching courses in pre-modern Chinese history and related subjects, for supervising students on teaching practice, and for contributing to department and faculty administration. The initial appointment will be for a period of 2 years and the appointee will be expected to commence employment in August 2019.

For the post of Lecturer I, applicants should have a Master’s Degree in Chinese History or a relevant discipline, plus a minimum of 4 years of relevant post-qualification teaching experience. Applicants must also possess a relevant professional teaching certificate, e.g. PGDE or qualification of Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) recognised by the Education Bureau of Hong Kong or other qualification of equivalence. A Doctoral Degree in Chinese History or a related discipline is desirable. Proven evidence of quality teaching and/or a successful record of relevant professional experience is required. Significant contributions to in-school curriculum development will be an advantage. Applicants with less relevant post-qualification teaching experience may be considered for the post of Lecturer II.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.
