Post-doctoral Fellow (Ref: PDF/LCS/0120b)
Department of Literature and Cultural Studies

The Department of Literature and Cultural Studies seeks a postdoctoral fellow to enhance the department’s ongoing research, teaching, and service projects during the academic year 2020/2021. The fellow will be responsible for contributing to the department in three areas. First, the fellow should plan to pursue research related to the department’s ongoing research in literary and cultural studies, including for example transnational modernism, postcolonial studies, global Anglophone literature, or related areas. The appointee will be required to present their research during the departmental seminar series and produce at least one article-length research output over the project period. Second, the fellow will support the department’s major knowledge transfer and community service projects, including One City One Book Hong Kong, which is a collaboration between LCS and the EdUHK Centre for Popular Culture in the Humanities. Finally, the appointee will teach one course in the department in an appropriate area of expertise. This is a fixed-term postdoctoral fellowship, aimed at an early career scholar within the field of literary or cultural studies. The appointment will be for a period of 12 months, beginning on 2 July 2020 and ending on 1 July 2021.

Applicants should have a Doctoral Degree in a related discipline. Alongside required application documents, candidates should submit 1) a detailed cover letter describing previous experiences in research, teaching, knowledge transfer, and community service; 2) a two-page precis of the research project they would like to undertake during their fellowship; 3) evidence of successful previous teaching experience.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.
