Research Assistant I (Ref: RA/PS/0720)
Department of Psychology

The appointee will be responsible for providing research support to the project related to positive psychology in the education setting. The project aims to develop training materials to enhance students’ well-being and resilience, evaluate the effectiveness of the training programme, and disseminate information related to positive psychology to the general public. The major duties include conducting literature review, developing research and training materials, collecting data, performing statistical analyses, liaising with schools and NGOs, writing reports and performing any other duties as assigned by the project team. The appointment will be for a period of 12 months with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should have a Bachelor’s degree in Psychology or a relevant discipline, preferably with interest in conducting psychology research in school setting. They should be proficient in both written and spoken English and Chinese (including Cantonese). They should be self-motivated and capable to work independently or as a good team player. Experience in working with school children will be advantageous.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.
