

Exemption from CLE Language Enhancement Courses

1. Students may be granted exemption from specific language enhancement courses offered by the Centre for Language in Education (CLE) based on the requisite grade achieved in the pre-test for the relevant courses. In such cases, CLE will notify the Registry of the students' exemption status and students are not required to submit a separate application for course exemption to the Registry. Regarding the course exemption criteria, please refer to the announcement issued for the relevant courses.
2. Unless confirmation of exemption is obtained from CLE, students are required to enrol in and attend the relevant courses as scheduled. Upon CLE's approval of the exemption, students will be de-registered from the relevant courses.
3. Students who have previously failed the course are not eligible to apply for course exemption.

Chinese and Putonghua Enhancement Courses (For non-Chinese-speaking students)

4. Non-Chinese-speaking (NCS) students who have little or no knowledge of written Chinese may be granted exemption from the Chinese and Putonghua enhancement courses. NCS students may submit an application to CLE by emailing cle@eduhk.hk before the commencement of the Semester 1 of Year 1, together with their high school transcript(s), public exam certificate(s) and any other supporting documents demonstrating that they lacked Chinese literacy and/or Putonghua training prior to their undergraduate studies.
5. Regarding the credit-bearing Chinese enhancement course “CLE1221 Chinese Language I”, upon CLE's approval of the exemption, students are required to complete another 3-credit “make-up” course¹ from the pool of courses² tabulated in Table 1 below in any semester during their undergraduate studies at the University. After registering for the “make-up” course on their own during the online course registration period (as scheduled by the Registry), students must report their selected course to CLE via the e-form: https://eduhk.au1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cVbIFvAGU5tPAnH within the add/drop period of the respective semester. Any late submissions must be supported by a valid justification.

¹ Same as CLE1221, students should note that the grade of the “make-up” course will not be counted towards their GPA.

² Course offerings are subject to change; not all listed courses will be offered each year, and new courses may be added. Please refer to the details available at <https://www.eduhk.hk/cle/CLE1221>.
