Recruitment of Student Hall Tutors 2025-26 for Student Halls/Quarters (3rd Round)

Full-time non-final year postgraduate (PG) students and full-time Year 3 (SYE students exclusive) or above undergraduate (UG) students in 2025-26 are invited to apply for the post of Student Hall Tutor 2025-26. The Student Hall Tutors 2025-26 appointment period is from 8 August 2025 (Friday) to 22 May 2026 (Friday).

Each student hall/quarters has about 500 student-residents and is under the leadership of a Warden. Currently, there are openings available in one of our esteemed halls: Grantham Hall (GH). These vacancies present a unique opportunity for students to join our vibrant community.

The Warden is supported by two teams in respective halls: (1) the Hall-life Education team headed by the Assistant Warden with support from the Residential Officers, and (2) the administration team headed by the Hall Affairs Officer. Student Hall Tutors are members of the tutorial team. Student Hall Tutor is a residential post without specific working hours, and appointees are expected to be on a non-office hour roster. Student Hall Tutors should demonstrate a genuine interest in hall life and be keen to serve fellow residents. Selection will be based on the capabilities and relevant experience of applicants. Duties include assisting the Warden and the Assistant Warden in:

1. providing pastoral care and intellectual guidance to student residents;
2. engaging with students through proactive participation in hall life education programmes for personal growth and professional development of student residents;
3. assisting the HLE Team in organization and promotion of HLE programmes/activities to student-residents;
4. assisting SRA to promote inclusive communities and support the personal development of our student-residents;
5. enhancing student residents' cultural awareness and cultural knowledge;
6. helping residents be aware of residence regulations and disciplinary procedures and handling minor disciplinary cases in the hall/quarters;
7. assisting HLE Team and Hall Management Office in the management of formal discipline incidents and attending to emergencies in the hall/quarters;
8. acting as an adviser of the Floor Committee; and
9. any other duties as assigned by the Dean of Students/Warden and his/her delegate(s).

The University may change any of the above-mentioned duties/responsibilities from time to time.*

Interested students, please submit the completed e-certificate for two courses, including 1. Preventing Sexual Harassment on Campus and 2. Inclusive Campus and Special Educational Needs; and complete the online application form between 12:00nn, 3 December 2025 (Wednesday) and 12:00nn, 11 December 2025 (Thursday). Student-applicants are also required to submit a recommendation letter for the position from academic staff from the latest/current programme and a copy of their academic transcript as supporting. Applications without the required documents will not be processed. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for a selection interview tentatively held from mid to late December 2025, subject to further notice.

Provisions of Student Accommodation for Student Hall Tutors

All Student Hall Tutors are provided with a residential duty room will be assigned to you free of charge on an ex gratia basis in the student hall/quarters during the term of your appointment.* Due to variations in the architectural design, the provision of tutor bedrooms in Northcote Hall (NH), Grantham Hall (GH) and Robert Black Hall (RBH) are not the same as those in the Jockey Club Student Quarters (JCSQ).

Northcote Hall, Grantham Hall and Robert Black Hall

All student study-bedrooms are for double or triple occupancy of the same gender. Communal facilities include activity rooms, laundry rooms, bathrooms, toilets and pantries. Students may reheat food or do some very light and small-scale cooking in the pantries.

Each Student Hall Tutor will be provided with a rent-free study-bedroom. Student Hall Tutors are responsible for their own utility charges.

Jockey Club Student Quarters

Students of the same gender occupy either a 9-person or 12-person flat with its own sitting/dining areas, terrace, large kitchen, laundry room and 3 bathrooms. Student Hall Tutor accommodation in student quarters would be a rent-free bedroom in a student flat. He/she has to share utility charges with other flatmates.

 Only the Student Hall Tutor, excluding his/her family members and/or acquaintances, can reside in student halls/quarters. The University reserves the right to charge lodging fees we reasonably incur in connection with the provision of a duty room.*
