Part II

The University’s Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short “PEER & I”):
• Professional Excellence;
• Ethical Responsibility; &
• Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:
1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
4a. Oral Communication Skills
4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives
1. Course Synopsis
The course will examine two major themes: the evolution and transformation of citizenship education as well as its implications for global and Hong Kong studies. This course equips participants with a deeper understanding of citizenship concepts, citizenship education and related issues in the contemporary global context. Emphasis will be put on the topics of identity, nationality, citizens’ rights and responsibilities, democracy and human rights, citizen participation, ideology, rule of law, social movement, multiculturalism, civil society, integration and social cohesion for both the global world and Hong Kong. An interdisciplinary perspective will also be adopted to stimulate students to comprehend the complex dimensions and dynamics of citizenship education.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

CILO₁ demonstrate an understanding of the meaning of citizenship and the related concepts of nationality, democracy, freedom, human rights, responsibilities, civic participation, ideology, rule of law, gender, civil society, social cohesion, social movement and multiculturalism;

CILO₂ demonstrate an understanding of the nature of and requirements for active citizenship education, cultural, global environmental and corporate citizenship;

CILO₃ apply the various concepts of citizenship to analyze current development and to draw meaningful insights and connections from different disciplines;

CILO₄ develop an understanding of multiple disciplines and perspectives of the changing dimensions of citizenship education in Hong Kong.
