Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence:
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

- 1. Problem Solving Skills
- 2. Critical Thinking Skills
- 3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
- 5. Social Interaction Skills
- 6. Ethical Decision Making
- 7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course discusses a wide range of theoretical and applied issues of global politics. Key concepts and debates of international politics would be introduced before turning to key topical issues, including inter-state and transnational security challenges, conflict resolution and prevention, governance of global economic affairs, the roles of international institutions and non-state actors like NGOs, networks, business actors and cities. These will help students develop skills to appreciate the changing political dynamics in contemporary global affairs, critically evaluate real world events through the uses of theoretical lenses and concepts and appreciate the roles and positioning of Hong Kong as a global city in the international system.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILO_s)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ examine critically features of and debates in international relations and global governance;
- CILO₂ develop critical thinking skills using multiple perspectives;
- CILO₃ analyze reports and statements of governments and international organizations related to international politics and law;
- CILO₄ appreciate the merit and applicability of various theories in international politics and global governance in understanding real world issues and challenges.
