

Professor Anthony Cheung on HK's problems and solutions

-- By Professor Anthony Cheung Bing-leung, Advisor (Public Administration) of the Department of Social Sciences and Policy Studies

- In a contributed article to Ming Pao, Professor Cheung discussed the problems faced by HK and proposed solutions. Analysing the current economic problems, Professor Cheung pointed out that these problems can be solved by economic measures in the short term, but the long-term solution lies in politics which determines people's confidence in the future.
