Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

Cultural heritage is an expression of the ways of living developed by a community and passed on from generation to generation, including objects, customs, artistic expressions (practices) and values. This course provides students with a broad and fundamental understanding of the cultural heritage conservation and management issues in modern society including tangible cultural heritage, architecture, archeological site and intangible cultural heritage. Cultural heritage conservation theories such as sustainable development, as well as policy anchored in The UNESCO cultural conventions will be studied. Global, national and local cases will be examined to discuss the perennial and emergent issues in heritage conservation policies. The course aims to develop students with a sense of appreciation and awareness of the cultural diversity and its contexts.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ Demonstrate a high level of competence in categorizing material and non-material cultural heritage;
- CILO₂ Critically evaluate global, national and local dialogues and practices on cultural heritage conservation;
