Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing participants with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of participants in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course integrates knowledge gained through previous coursework and experience and builds on that conceptual foundation through integrative analysis, academic research, practical application, and critical thinking. The core objective is to apply financial theories and contemporary financial practices to personal finance education. Emerging issues in finance relevant to personal finance education are considered. Individual and group case studies and research papers are used to integrate key financial knowledge in the areas of financial analysis, investments, portfolio valuation, risk, and Fintech.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- CILO<sub>1</sub> research and critically review the cutting-edge issues in the financial education literature;
- CILO<sub>2</sub> integrate and apply the latest theories and practices to personal financial education from a variety of perspectives;
