Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing participants with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of participants in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course is an advanced research course for participants who have sufficient knowledge in research methodologies in finance and are interested in doing academic research relates to personal finance education. Research project proposal of 3,000 words will have to be submitted to the research project committee that is composed of at least two members, including participant's supervisor and programme leader, by the middle of the first semester of participants' study, while the entire research project of about 12,000 - 15,000 words will have to be delivered to the research project committee. Participants will be required to present their research project before the research project committee, which will then give a grade to the work. Revisions will have to be made so that the final research project will satisfy the research project committee. The final research project will have a copy deposited to the Library and another one in the departmental library.

1. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- CILO₁ Demonstrate the ability to master in-depth research on personal finance education;
- CILO₂ Complete and write up a research project report on personal finance education that combines conceptual and theoretical framework with empirical evidence;
- CILO₃ Show originality and efforts in the in-depth research work;
