Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Sub-degree, Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The descriptors under these three domains are different for the three groups of students in order to reflect the respective level of Graduate Attributes.

The seven GILOs are:

- 1. Problem Solving Skills
- 2. Critical Thinking Skills
- 3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
- 5. Social Interaction Skills
- 6. Ethical Decision Making
- 7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course serves as a foundation course for students to develop conceptual and analytical ability essential for understanding the complex world of public policy and governance. Public policy and governance studies are multidisciplinary in nature. This course will draw upon major theories and approaches in political science, public administration, sociology, and economics, and synthesize them into a coherent set of knowledge that students without undergraduate background in related fields can comprehend. A variety of pedagogies, such as lectures, tutorials, presentations and discussions, will be adopted in this course.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILO_s)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

CILO₁: Critically examine public policy and governance in a variety of settings.

CILO₂: Understand how public policy is made and how the process may be improved.

CILO₃: Understand how public policy is implemented and explore strategies for improving the process.

CILO₄: Understand how public policy is evaluated, ex ante and ex post.
